O'Donnell withdraws application

By ERIN DOWNING

WILMINGTON - Facing the possibility of termination for the violation of Wilmington's School Committee policy, Superintendent Dr. Geraldine O'Donnell applied for a similar position in Newburyport.

O'Donnell said she made the June 17th deadline to have all her paper work in for the position. However, she withdrew her name as a finalist for the Newburyport job on June 29, citing Wilmington Town Manager Michael Cairra as an influence in her decision to stay. "Michael Cairra and I really share the same vision for the education we want in Wilmington," stated O'Donnell.

On June 24, the school board held a disciplinary hearing to determine whether O'Donnell violated committee policy when she failed to show board members the final draft of the contract signed by the new West Intermediate School Principal, Suzanne Garfield.

O'Donnell selected Garfield May 18 over committee member Robert Young. The hearing resulted in an oral reprimand for O'Donnell, rather than the more severe punishment. The other options of punishment were a written reprimand or possible suspension.

She first found the job opening in a superintendent newsletter. Support from a professional colleague contributed to her decision to apply for the $90,000-plus per-year position. "I have a professional col-

Debate continues

Assault weapon ban

By AMY PETERSON

The battle continues on in the race for the Tewksbury-Wilmington State Representative seat. Once again, Democratic State Rep. Candidate, Michael Newhouse, has accused Rep. Jim Miceli of working against his people's best interests.

The allegations came last week, after Miceli voted with the majority of the House of Representatives against an amendment relating to the banning of assault weapons. Newhouse labeled Miceli's decision a travesty to the public safety of residents of Tewksbury and Wilmington.

Newhouse said, "The amendment Miceli voted against would have prohibited the sale of pre-1994 manufactured assault weapons and would have closed a giant loophole which allows thousands of assault weapons, already on the street, to be sold and resold indefinitely."

"The position I am taking on this is not marginal," Newhouse said, "I would have voted for a stricter, more prohibitive assault weapons ban. Unlike Jim Miceli, people understand that assault weapons are not made for sport, they are made to kill."

new. It deals strictly with weapons such as 'junk' pistols and rifles."

Wilmington's 4th of July celebrations at a glance

Wilmington's Fun on the Fourth celebrations are already in full swing. Rain Tuesday forced the 4th of July Committee to move their dinner and concert to the K of C Hall. But they still managed to sell 200+ dinners. The weather forecast for the rest of the week is looking up and the committee would like to remind everyone to buy their tickets for all meals early. Some meals do sell out.

Sporting events postponed from Tuesday will be:
Ladies 2 mile walk - Wednesday 7:00 p.m.
Basketball shootout - Wednesday 6:30 p.m.
Horseshoes - Wednesday 6:00 p.m.

As of press time Wednesday afternoon tickets sales have been going well.

All events are at the Wilmington Town Common. Tickets sales for all meals are at the 4th HQ located opposite the common, cash or check only. No credit cards.

Over Garfield's Contract

O'Donnell reprimanded by school committee

By ERIN DOWNING

WILMINGTON - Wilmington School Superintendent Geraldine O'Donnell was orally reprimanded by the School Committee.

The board discovered that the new West Intermediate School Principal, Suzanne Garfield signed a three-year contract May 18 by reading the Town Crier. The contract will pay her $67,000 per year to work 215 days, beginning July 1.

"The chair (Suzanne Spiris-Rooney) received a phone call from a member of the school committee. This member was reading the Town Crier, and wanted to know if I knew that Suzanne Garfield signed a three-year contract and the amount of compensation, set at $67,000 per year," explained Spiris-Rooney. "I then called the Roman House and left a message for Dr. O'Donnell, asking her if Suzanne Garfield had in fact signed a three-year contract."

The board's decision came after a public hearing to determine whether O'Donnell violated committee policy when she failed to show board members the final draft of the contract given to Garfield.

According to the School Committee policy 6142, a copy of the final contract should be provided in the School Committee package for their meeting scheduled prior to the date when the contract is to be executed.

Spiris-Rooney stated that she handed a letter of complaint to O'Donnell on June 3 for failure to comply with policy 6142.

Reading from a typed statement, O'Donnell adamantly defended her decision to hire Garfield on May 18. "At no time in the process of hiring a new principal did I wilfully and deliberately take any action in violation of the School Committee policy. And I will make the case that I acted in the best interest of the Wilmington Public Schools. The School Committee Policy #6142, if followed literally would have, in my opinion, resulted in actual harm to the Wilmington Public Schools," said O'Donnell.

The harm O'Donnell was referring to was the possibility of losing Garfield, who was also a finalist in several other communities. "This (following the policy) would have made it necessary to have to wait until after May 27th, the next date of the School Committee meeting, over 10 days," stated O'Donnell.

A draft of a sitting principal's contract was reviewed by the committee in executive session May 13. The draft version lacked the length of the contract and the salary given to Garfield.

Spiris-Rooney questioned why the committee was not shown a copy of the final contract. "Why couldn't you (O'Donnell) have called me to look at the contract? No one on the committee wouldn't have worked with you," she said.

O'Donnell apologized for not doing this. "I am sorry that I did not have a special minivan delivery of the contract after its review by Attorney (Regina) Tate that Monday, but I thought since there were no changes there would be no problem in using the contract that afternoon to secure the best candidate for the position for Wilmington," explained O'Donnell.

However, member Barbara Breakey stressed the importance of following the policy. "We have staff and students who abide by the policies of this School Committee. If not, they are disciplined. Do we say the superintendent is exempt? I don't think so," said Breakey.

The chairwoman addressed O'Donnell's statement in the Lowell Sun in which she revealed that Spiris-Rooney supported committee member Robert Young, who was also a candidate for the position, after attending the public interviews of the finalists. "It offends me personally to read in the paper that you (O'Donnell) said I supported Young. I signed yes to three

Young resigns seat

By ERIN DOWNING

WILMINGTON - After serving 5 1/2 years as a member of the Wilmington School Committee, Robert Young made the surprising announcement of his resignation from his seat on the committee in a letter read aloud by fellow member Joan Duffy at the end of their June 24 meeting. The resignation was effective immediately following the meeting.

In the letter, Young explained that he has disagreed with the committee and with the administration over a variety of issues many times. He has also voted against sizable pay raises for the Superintendent during each Superintendent's contract negotiations, rather offering increases more in line with other bargaining groups. However, Young noted that he has always voted to re-hire the current Superintendent.

Reading from his letter, Duffy said, "During the past two years, this stance has cost me Chairmanship of this committee and at least two administrative positions outside of Wilmington. People have questioned my willingness to be a team player, as well as my interest in personal gain all the time referring to my position on the school committee."

His announcement came after a hearing into whether School Superintendent Dr. Geraldine O'Donnell violated committee policy when she failed to show the committee members the final draft of the contract given to the new West Intermediate School Principal, Suzanne Garfield.

According to the School Committee policy 6142, a copy of the final contract should be provided in

HOW TO DEDUCT YOUR VACATION

Who says you can't mix business and pleasure? It's the key to getting Uncle Sam to pay part of your vacation expenses.
If you have a business reason to travel, your expenses are deductible: airfare, hotel, even incidentals like cabs and dry cleaning. Your meals that have a business purpose are 50 percent deductible. Take the wife along? Her expenses are not deductible unless she is an employee traveling with you for a business reason. But you can deduct what you would have spent anyway--the cost of a single room, full price on the cab you took, etc.--rather than cut costs down the middle.
Add a day or two to the trip and the IRS will probably still allow the major travel and hotel costs. Even on a pleasure trip, you can still deduct any expenses related to business.
Cruise ship conventions are deductible up to $2,000 on a U.S. ship. On land there's no limit for attending business conventions.
We're up to date on taxes and business. Check with us at...

How do you spell Wilmington?

by STU NEILSON

I was in a popular store in Billerica over the weekend, when the young lady at the cash register had occasion to ask what town I lived in. I replied, matter-of-factly, "Wilmington." To which she replied, "How do you spell that?"

My first thought was that, although I'm not known for my quiet voice, that she had not understood my reply. I repeated, with great clarity, "Wilmington." To which she queried, "Yes, but how do you spell Wilmington?"

If she had just moved here from Mars I could sympathize, but my reaction was shock. This young lady was in charge of collecting large sums of money from the public and could not spell "Wilmington!" There are ten Wilmingtons in the United States. All are spelled the same as they sound. The young lady assured me that math and science were her strong suits, spelling was not.

That was OK because she only had to scan the bar codes, push a total button, swipe my credit card and push a button. Then she dutifully held my credit card while I signed the receipt to "verify" the signature was the same. I carefully and illegibly scrawled my name, differently than I usually do. She compared them and returned the card to me.

I saw the Herald show where they checked the accuracy of scanners at grocery stores. I think I'll check that receipt again.

Born on the 3rd of July

by STU NEILSON

On Wednesday morning, July 1, 1998, Charles Osgood was on WBZ Radio complaining about the 4th of July being celebrated on the 3rd of July. It seems that some government office in Washington has decided that the official holiday will be on Friday, as opposed to other holidays which when they fall on a weekend are celebrated on the following Monday.

I can see his point, sort of. He lives in Washington, or New York or Maryland or somewhere, who knows. The point is... he doesn't live in Wilmington! He doesn't know how to celebrate the 4th of July! Imagine... a one day celebration! HA! We know how to do it right!

Unless you live in a hole, you know Wilmington started celebrating on Tuesday and will carry on through Sunday. Concerts, dinners, contests, sporting events, food, food, fireworks and fun and the carnival, too. It has been nearly 20 years and Wilmington's 4th of July Committee is still going strong.

Formed after the tremendous job done by the 250th Committee in 1980, Wilmington has been treated to better and better festivities every year. Many of the members of the committee today were on the committee then. They could tell Charles Osgood a thing or two about celebrations!

So as you pop in the 4th Headquarters, give a tip of the hat to the lady selling you the tickets, the man with the bullhorn, the folks in the red shirts... they've worked a year on your picnic. Enjoy!

Many children injured

Amateur fireworks ruin the party, leave it to the pros

WILMINGTON — Did you know that bottle rockets fly at a speed of up to 200 miles per hour and sparklers burn at 1,800 degrees?

Fireworks were involved in 49 major fire incidents in Massachusetts last year, many during the Fourth of July holiday, and caused serious injuries and property damage.

"Every year children and amateurs in Massachusetts are cruelly and needlessly injured by the illegal use of fireworks," said State Fire Marshal Stephen D. Coan.

"Too often it is the innocent bystander who suffers, like the baby whose blanket was ignited at a fireworks display by an amateur shooting off a bottle rocket," he said.

Among the incidents last year:

• On July 6 in Whitman, a 3-year-old boy set his family home on fire and burned his hands by playing fireworks.

• On July 4 in Stoughton, children started a fire in a two-family home by playing with fireworks in the living room. The estimated property damage was $60,000.

• On June 17 in Pepperell, a 12-year-old boy was burned on his face and hands from an M-80 explosion.

• On July 4 on Martha's Vineyard, two men were burned on their hands and necks; a third suffered partial hearing loss and burns on his lower extremities.

• On July 20 in greater Boston, a 6-year-old girl was burned by a firecracker.

In the last five years, 93 percent of fireworks burn victims were male and almost two-thirds of the victims were under 18.

The possession and use of all fireworks by private citizens is illegal in Massachusetts. This includes all class C fireworks, such as sparklers, party poppers, snappers, firecrackers, spinners and cherry bombs.

It is illegal to purchase fireworks in another state, such as New Hampshire, and to transport them to Massachusetts.

Advertisers cannot be prohibited from advertising fireworks for sale, but it is illegal to purchase fireworks through catalogs for delivery in Massachusetts. Many unhappy consumers have lost both their money and fireworks trying to circumvent the law.

If your Fourth celebrations include fireworks, state Public Safety Secretary Kathleen O'Toole, the State Fire Marshal's Office and local fire departments urge you to leave it to the pros and attend a supervised, professional fireworks displays.

NESWC rehires Environmental Futures to continue momentum to save money

BOSTON — The North East Solid Waste Committee (NESWC) Board of Directors today announced the selection of Environmental Futures, Inc. for another three-year management contract. This contract covers the general management of the daily operations of the NESWC consortium.

Robert W. Moroney, P.E., the Chairman of the Board of Directors said, "We look forward to continuing to work with Environmental Futures in exploring ways to reduce the burdens on the NESWC taxpayer. They have done an excellent job for the past several years and we look forward to pursuing additional avenues to mitigate the economic costs and environmental concerns for the communities."

Under the terms of the new management contract, effective July 1, 1993, Shawn Worster will be the Executive Director for NESWC. He will be responsible for coordinating the daily operations, will manage the staff and will report to the Board of Directors.

Steven M. Rothstein will shift his role from Executive Director to Senior Advisor to allow him more time to focus on strategic issues. "We appreciate the continued confidence of the NESWC Board of Directors," said Rothstein.

"While there has been progress on many areas in the past few years, we are committed to seeking creative solutions to the unfair trash disposal costs. We will also continue to work to seek reductions in the environmental emissions of the Wheelabrator plant."

Chairman Moroney stated "the new management contract emphasizes an increased role of the NESWC Board of Directors. Additional working committees are being established to provide a more hands-on role for Board members."

Shawn Worster said, "We are very pleased to have been given the opportunity to continue our efforts on behalf of the 500,000 residents in the 23 communities. Our entire team looks forward to working closely with the Board of Directors in meeting the challenges facing NESWC over the next three years."

"This contract also represents a promotion for Worster. He and the NESWC-Environmental Futures staff have worked hard during the past few years," noted Rothstein.

The NESWC communities are Acton, Arlington, Bedford, Belmont, Boxborough, Burlington, Carlisle, Dracut, Hamilton, Lexington, Lincoln, Manchester, North Andover, North Reading, Peabody, Tewksbury, Watertown, Wenham, Westford, West Newbury, Wilmington, and Winchester.

Fanciful look at our recent rain

Dear Editor:

The other day in the downpour, I looked out in my back yard and would you believe it, old Noah was floating by and said he couldn't take on any more like me 'cus he had two now and they were giving him more trouble than all the other critters he had on board.

He wanted to know whether the stream in my back yard would take him to Mount Ararat because all those animals being penned all these years are beginning to smell awful.

He said it was not bad enough with all those animals and their offspring, he had quite a few of his own too. Too bad he mistook the water from my two sump pumps for a stream. I hope he doesn't run aground before he gets to where he's going 'cus I don't think they had Arid in those days.

Wilmington Library Notes

Mysterious trunk found at library!

WILMINGTON - A mysterious trunk was delivered to the library one dark day last week during a furious, drenching rain. Library staff members have yet to discover where it came from, although reports indicate that it was delivered from a suspicious looking orange van. Heavy and huge, with thick chain around and padlocked, the trunk has left many guessing what's inside. Indeed, library staff has made a game of it: "What's Inside the Mysterious, Padlocked Trunk?"

Wilmington children have proven their sleuthing skills in guessing what's inside the trunk by solving the first mystery in three days! By asking a series of questions with a

"yes" or "no" answer, each child asking one question each library visit, and library staff recording all the questions and answers in the "clue" book, children are able to use the clues to solve the mystery.

What was in the trunk? Curiously, it was the Complete Sherlock Holmes by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle! Could this have some connection to the fact that the great detective himself was here at the library for the "Mystery Festival" with his good friend Dr. Watson?

Who solved this mystery? The "Grand Winner" who guessed that it was "a Sherlock Holmes book" was Andrew Marra. Winners who narrowed the search before him with the question "Is it a book?" were Lauren Convery, Susan Livermore, Alyssa Brown, Christine Cassim, Heidi and Kyle Hastings, Sarah Turner, Justin Loranger, Jennifer Loranger and Heather Walter.

The search was narrowed even further with the question "Is it a hard cover mystery book?" posed by winners Steve and Bobby Crowe.

Thank you to "Onstage Video" of Wilmington ad "Burger King" of Burlington and Tewksbury for their generous gift of prizes to be presented to the winners.

Another mysterious item has been locked in the trunk. Visit the library, read the clues and help solve the mystery!

Laboratory session

The first "Mystery Summer" Laboratory Session was a great success. Over 60 children listened to two books about spiders; one the informational book by Gail Gibbons, Spiders, and the other Be Kind to Spiders by Margaret Bloy Graham.

Participants created a spider hat and their own spider web, complete with spider. Many children went home sporting their new spider hats, gluey hair and all. Thanks to Burger King of Wilmington for supplying "Free Hamburger" coupons which were distributed to each child.

Upcoming children's programs

Tues., July 7: 7 p.m., "Mad Science of Greater Boston" funded by the Friends of the Library. Tickets required.

Wed., July 8: 2 p.m., "Laboratory Science" story/craft program for children ages five and up.

Thurs., July 9: 10 a.m., "Time for Two's" storytime for two-year-olds with parent or guardian.

Mystery trivia

Picnics, fireworks and festivals are held in cities and towns all over the United States on July 4. The World's Greatest Lizard Race is also held on July 4. Do you know here participants and observers cheer their lizards and iguanas as they race down a 16 foot ramp? You can find the answer in Chases 1998 Calendar of Events, a reference book (Ref394.26) which lists anniversaries, holidays, festivals and historical events for each day, week and month of the year.

Newburyport post

league who is familiar with the Wilmington and Newburyport districts," said O'Donnell. "I was encouraged to apply by the colleague because of the similarities between the them."

The districts do share some similarities. According to O'Donnell, there is a need for leadership in Newburyport. "They are dealing with a growing population," said O'Donnell. Newburyport has 2,500 students and a school budget of $15.6 million. Wilmington has just under 3,500 students and a budget of about $17 million.

O'Donnell was one of four finalists from a pool of 26 candidates. The position became available when G. Paul Dulac accepted the job as director of the International School in Beijing, China. The other finalists are Mary Murray, Newburyport's director of curriculum, Kathleen Smith, an assistant superintendent of Concord-Carlisle and Brenda Needham, superintendent in Granby, Conn.

O'Donnell expressed that she gave a lot of thought to her decision to withdraw as a candidate for the job. "I had to weigh the benefits as well as the losses," she said.

A three-year contract was signed by O'Donnell and voted by the board members in executive session on June 10th. The committee will ratify the contract at their July 15th meeting.

O'Donnell stated that she and the board will continue to the move forward and work towards the best education for Wilmington students.

Assault weapon ban

Miceli lashed back at Newhouse saying, "Once again Newhouse has displayed his lack of experience here." "This bill does absolutely nothing of getting handguns and dangerous weapons off the streets and out of the hands of criminals."

Miceli said, the title of the bill was changed after a debate in the House because of the term "Assault Weapons." "The federal government put a ban on assault weapons made after 1994," he said, "This amendment does not do anything no problems with such weapons in Tewksbury and Wilmington. "The weapons that this amendment talks about are those used for such things as target shooting and hunting. It does nothing to halt crime. It would not impair somebody who has ulterior motives."

Currently, any person who wishes to attain a permit for the weapons Miceli mentioned, in Tewksbury and Wilmington, must first attain a permit from the chief of police.

Miceli also noted that the bill has not reached final enactment. It will next move through the Conference Committee and the Senate and the House for concurrence and enactment. Therefore, it is not a law yet.

Newhouse said, regarding Miceli's position on the subject. "Rep. Miceli is not representing the whole loaf here. It's all or nothing. When it comes to public safety we can't accept a half loaf."

Newhouse argued that there is only a ban on assault weapons made after 1994, and that those manufactured before that period still pose a threat to society.

School board selects transportation vendor

By ERIN DOWNING

WILMINGTON - The Wilmington School Committee voted unanimously at their June 24 meeting to approve the Regular Education Student Transportation bid to Bruce Transportation Group of Hudson, NH.

Bradford Jackson, Director of Administration and Finance, said the Bruce Transportation Group did a tremendous job when he worked in Hudson. "In my experience, I've found that they are very reliable and provide safe transportation," stated Jackson.

In accordance with the Massachusetts General Law, he advertised and received five bids for the supply of Regular Education Student Transportation for July 1, 1998 through June 30, 2001.

According to Jackson's letter to the committee members, the vendors include A & F Bus Co. Inc., Bruce Transportation, Joseph's Limousine, North Suburban and the current vendor Trombly Motor.

As the lowest bidder, Bruce Transportation's total price in 98-99 is $509,910. The cost increases to $522,976 in 99-00. In the following year, the total price is $536,330. The three year total price is $1,569,216. "The prices change because of the cost of labor. The cost of insurance will go up and the cost of gas will rise also," explained Jackson.

Trombly Motor is the second lowest bidder. Beginning at $517,640 in 98-99, Trombly Motor totals in at $543,560 in the third year. The three year total price is $1,593,240.

A & F Bus Co. Inc., is the third cheapest bidder, finishing with a three year total price of $1,633,545.

With a $121,945 difference than A & F Bus Co., North Suburban's total three year price is $1,755,490. Joseph's Limousine is the highest bidder with a three year total price at $1,809,097.50.

Jackson confirmed that changing to a new vendor will not effect the students. "We review the bus routes every year based on the number of kids and what schools they are attending," said Jackson. "The review has nothing to do with changing the vendor. The kids won't be effected by this."

In other news, Wilmington High School received 21 Gateway 486 computers on Friday.

The Wilmington Director of Community Education, John Randolph had put in a request for government recycled computers for the high school.

According to Jackson, the computers will be utilized for computer work outside of the classroom. "They have the same software we're teaching the kids in the business courses," said Jackson. "The students will be able to use the computers for doing research and papers."

In a letter to the Superintendent of Schools Dr. Geraldine O'Donnell, Technology Coordinator Lee McCanne noted, "Although this will not relieve our need for a new second computer lab, it will get us a step closer to providing tools for our high school students and staff."

Wilmington's Fourth of July celebrations started off with a Splash. The 4th of July committee had to move their Chinese dinner and concert to the K of C hall due to the weather. They did manage to serve more than 200 dinners. Festivities continue Wednesday evening with the already sold out Rotary Club Texas BBQ. Seen here chatting over Chinese are (standing) Dot Cunha and Madeline Bimbo, (seated) Ellen Martin, her sister and brother in law Barbara and Charlie DeStephano. (photo by Carolyn Kenney)

Former school board member hoping to return

By ERIN DOWNING

WILMINGTON - Former Wilmington School Committee member Judson Miller confirmed on June 30 that he will be seeking to replace board member Robert Young.

"I submitted a letter today to the town manager, school superintendent and school committee, notifying them of my decision," said Miller.

He explained that the school committee and board of selectmen must meet at a public hearing to choose a successor to Young, who resigned after the committee's June 24 meeting.

The board of selectmen will meet July 13 and the school committee's next meeting is July 15. "The committee has 30 days to appoint someone. So this has to be done at one of the July meetings," said Miller.

While he does not know when the board of selectmen will select a replacement, Miller noted that it has been customary for the school committee to attend the selectmen meeting.

Miller served on the committee from April 1995 until he resigned last June. He ran unsuccessfully in April to return to the board. "There were four of us running and three were elected. I was the runner up," stated Miller.

According to Miller, this was Young's last year on the committee. Therefore, the person appointed to the board would only serve the remainder of his term until the elections in April.

The potential successor to Young announced that he will also run in April for election to the committee.

Miceli & O'Brien's outside incomes reported

By AMY PETERSON

Two local politicians are earning more than just their governmental salaries these days. According to financial reports filed with the state Ethics Commission, Rep. James Miceli and Senator John O'Brien, are just two among many of the state's politicians harvesting monies from both their legislative positions on Beacon Hill and private businesses.

The mandatory report, filed at the end of each year, list all benefits gained through real estate transactions, loans, investments and earnings from privately owned businesses. According to this year's report, Miceli checked off the category describing earnings over $100,000.

Miceli is the vice president of Leavitt & Sons Insurance Co. However, Miceli claims to stand firmly behind his legislative position, making it his first priority.

O'Brien, who owns a law practice, claimed his outside of legislative earnings to range $30,000 - $60,000 last year.

Recent speculation of lawmakers' outside earnings has led members of anti-tax groups such as Citizens for Limited Taxation and Government, to propose placing legislative pay raises on election ballots. Past efforts by the group to do so have failed.

However, last month House and Senate approved a plan that would base future legislative salaries on change's in the state's average household income.

Young resigns seat

the School Committee package for the School Committee meeting scheduled prior to the date when the contract is to be executed.

However, the committee did not receive a copy of the final contract O'Donnell offered Garfield until their May 27 regular meeting, after the date the contract was signed by Garfield.

Young was one of the finalists for the principal position at the West Intermediate. He is presently the assistant principal at the East Middle School in Braintree.

O'Donnell hired Garfield over Young on May 18. Garfield begins her new job July 1. She will succeed James Jordan, who retires in October.

Prior to the disciplinary hearing, O'Donnell was reported in the press stating that she thought Young should resign from the committee because he was a finalist for the job and a board member.

Young confronted her statement at the disciplinary hearing. "I was disappointed to read she (O'Donnell) thought I should resign when I had every right to stay on the committee. I applied for the job because I was qualified," said Young. "I was disturbed my name and my family's name was brought into the paper."

Young demanded a public apology from O'Donnell to him and his family. But, the motion failed.

He stated that he did not decide to resign because of the recent controversy. But, it did speed up his decision. "I just feel that it's time to move on," said Young.

When questioned by committee member Susanne Clarkin what O'Donnell would do if faced with a similar situation, she replied that she believes she followed the intent of the policy.

Young stated that he would have liked to have had O'Donnell apologize to him. "But, she said she followed the intent of the policy," he added.

After listening to the letter Duffy read, the committee members admitted that they were shocked by the news.

"You took me off guard," expressed Chairwoman Suzanne Spiras-Rooney. "I feel very badly for what you've gone through."

Duffy admitted that she did not even know the contents of the letter. "It was a surprise to all of us," she said.

Committee member Barbara Breakey wished Young well. "This committee will miss you," said Breakey.

Kid's Club happening place for 4 - 7 year olds

WILMINGTON - With temperatures soaring into the 90's, we all know that summer has finally arrived, and that means it's time for the Wilmington Recreation Department's Tiny Tots/Kids' Club program. The staff is pleased to announce that joining them this year is Mrs. Laura Good, who comes to us from the Woburn Street School.

Among the opening week's activities we're planting, making yoyos, parachute play, and "water

Coming in the week ahead will be a live animal show and a dance troupe performance.

Tiny Tots/Kids' Club is open to all Wilmington children ages four, five, six and seven. There are still limited openings in the Kids' Club group. For more information, call the Recreation Department at 658-4270.

Things are always hoppin' at Tiny Tots/Kids' Club.

The Wilmington Garden Club is busy all year long. During spring and early summer they plant flowers all over town. Here vice president Bernice Kaplan and president Celia Cornish are putting in Stella de Oro Day Lilies at the Wilmington Memorial Library. They also weeded and pruned the entire front area of the library. The Garden Club welcomes new members. For further information call 658-8583.

out of the four candidates-not just Young. It offends me that my confidentiality was broken," she said.

Young confronted O'Donnell's belief that the board's action was retaliation because she did not hire him. "This has nothing to do with Bob Young. I want to move on," said Young. "I was disappointed to read in the paper that the superintendent thought I should resign when I had every right to stay on the committee (during the selection process). I applied for the job because I was qualified."

A Grove Avenue resident spoke out in support of O'Donnell at the hearing. "I am embarrassed by personal innuendos and personal feelings that have come out from the board," she said. "I'm getting the feeling that some of you feel that your authority was undermined. I feel that it is personal and not professional."

Defending O'Donnell, Wilmington Town Manager Michael Cairra stated, "I don't think anyone can question Dr. O'Donnell's veracity."

Committee member Thomas Siracusa expressed that O'Donnell has been punished enough. "I think this alone is time served. We should move forward and get on with this with no disciplinary action," Siracusa stated.

Young's request for a public apology from O'Donnell failed, along with motions to give O'Donnell a written reprimand.

In an interview following the hearing, Young responded to the resident's comment. "It does become personal when someone puts my name in the paper. But, there was a violation of the policy and that's the issue," Young noted.

Senior Topics

WILMINGTON - July has arrived and summer is here! Happy Fourth of July!! I hope everyone has survived the rain we had in June. Please feel free to go to the Senior Center just to cool off. The Center is air conditioned and offers plenty of cold drinks.

I want to thank the Lions Club on behalf of all the seniors who were recipients of a delicious, hot, catered meal. On Tuesday, June 23, 100 seniors received a hot meal consisting of boneless breast of chicken, green beans, stuffing and baked potato. I have received several phone calls and thank you letters saying how much it was appreciated.

I was lucky to be able to deliver the meals, not only with our intern Melissa Goglia, but Jim Buckley from the Lions Club. There were 20 other volunteer drivers I would like to thank personally: Anna and Al LaValle, Frank and Martha Ratto, Marilyn and Joe McCarthy, Minnie and Don Kirby, June and Jerry Thuiller, Al and Gloria Morelli, George and Edith Dahl, Bill and Marion Nee, Mary Boylen, Lorraine Beaupre, Marilyn West, Barbara White.

This month we will be able to start a new program, Audio Cassette Library. This program was made possible by a donation of 77 books on tape to the Senior Center. The Center will loan the books out for one week at a time. Listings of books along with the sign out sheet at the front desk. We are also fortunate to be able to offer a cassette player for those who do not own one. (This was donated by the Lions Club). If anyone should have a cassette player that they are no longer using, feel free to donate it to the Center. Please take advantage of this new program.

I would like to take this opportunity to introduce a new free service in town for senior citizens called "Elderly Errand Running Service." Any senior citizen of Wilmington who needs an errand(s) run within Wilmington; Shannon and Erin will top by your house not pick up the money and a sit of items. They will then run your errands and return to your house. (This is not a transport service). Their service is free and will run Monday mornings from 8 a.m. to noon, July 6 through August 31. Please call to schedule times by the preceding Saturday at 5 p.m. Please leave message on answering machine if neither are at home;

They will get back to you as soon as possible to schedule an appointment. Call Shannon at 658-7768 or Erin at 657-8483. They will not pick up prescriptions.

This month's social event is a day trip in Wednesday, July 29 to Independence Harbor, in Assonet Ma. The cost is $10 (non-refundable). This includes transportation, live entertainment, and your meal. The sign up for the event is July 8 at 10 a.m. The monthly social calendar is out for July, and can be found at the center or mailed on request.

Congrats Little League teams

A big congratulations goes out to two Wilmington Little League teams. First the Padres of the Senior League who defeated the Marlins in a best out of three series. Prior to this season, the Padres spent many seasons in the cellar. Also in junior league play, the Braves defeated the Diamond Backs in a terrific back-and-forth battle last Wednesday to capture the playoff championship.

Pony team off to impressive 4-1 start

The Wilmington 13-year old Summer Pony League team has jumped out to an 4-1 record thus far. Just this past weekend, the team showed off its offense with a 19-9 victory over Lynnfield on Saturday and then a 15-7 win over Woburn on Sunday. In their four wins, the team is averaging 13 runs per game.

On Sunday, June 22, the team began its season with a home contest against Medford. And before anyone knew it the Wildcats had a big hole to climb out of, trailing 9-2 going to the last of the third. Wilmington added two runs in there third at bat to make it 9-4. Meanwhile on the hill, Craig Osgood came in relief in the top of the second and all he did was throw four-and-two-thirds of terrific relief, giving up just two earned runs on four hits. While Osgood was mowing them down, the Wildcat hitters also came alive striking for six runs in the fourth to take the lead at 10-9. The big hits in that inning came from Osgood and Greg Buck. In the last of the sixth, Buck helped add some insurance with an RBI single.

Wilmington brought on their closer Dave Rappoli in the top of the seventh although a little rusty, Rappoli still showed his dominance as he struck out two for the save. Osgood and Buck were the lone Cats to have two hits in the game.

Two days later the team traveled to Londonderry, New Hampshire for its first away game. This game showed that the team doesn't like to travel as they suffered their first and only defeat to this point, losing 9-5. Again the opponents struck early as they lead 8-1 after three innings on several hits, walks and errors. Wilmington's lone run came from a RBI triple by Rappoli.

Rappoli came in relief of tough luck starter Greg Buck in the fourth and all he did was throw three superb innings, striking out five batters and giving up an unearned run.

Wilmington did make things interesting in the top of the sixth as they scored four runs thanks to hits from Derek Hanley, Osgood and Pat Maloney, however they couldn't muster anything in the seventh.

Two days later, Thursday June 25th, the team returned home to face North Andover. This time the team got back to its winning ways with an 8-2 victory thanks to tremendous efforts from Dave Velardo and Buck who tossed seven superb innings. Velardo got the start and he went the first four giving up just one run on four hits and Buck closed it out throwing very well in the last three innings as he gave up an unearned run on two hits. Both pitchers got some help from their defense, as it turned a very pretty double play in the fourth from Rappoli to Osgood to Maloney as well as Osgood doubling off a runner in the top of the first on a pop up.

As for the bats it was Wilmington this time starting out of the gate early with three players crossing home in the bottom of the first. With the bases loaded and no outs, Velardo drove in Hanley and Osgood and Tim Rose continued it when he reached on an error to score Rappoli. Velardo was at it again in the second as he drove in Hanley again with another RBI single.

With the score 5-1 in favor of Wilmington, they really broke it open in the fourth as three more runs scored thanks to RBI hits from Rose, Maloney and Joe Downs. Wilmington won the game 8-2 as Buck slammed the door shut in the last three innings.

On Saturday the team was back on the road, this time in the rain as they traveled to Lynnfield. Wilmington set the tone early again in this one sending 16 batters to the plate in the first inning with ten of them scoring with two hits coming from Osgood and Buck while, Hanley had one and Velardo, Dan O'Connell, Bill Sinopoli, James O'Neill and Downs combined to walk seven times.

Downs got the call on the mound and he really came through tossing three great innings, giving up just one earned run leaving with the team leading 17-4. Wilmington scored seven more runs in the third. Lynnfield rallied a bit in the fourth scoring five runs to make it 17-9, but the saviour Buck again nailed it down in the fifth to end the shortened game due to rain and length of it. On the day, Osgood and Downs both had three hits each.

Finally on Sunday, the team beat Woburn 15-7 as again they had a huge first inning this time scoring 11 runs. Buck (two doubles, 3 RBI), O'Connell, Velardo and Sinopoli (1 hit each) and John Martin (long sacrifice fly) were the big stars with the bats in the inning. Wilmington added one run in the second and three more in the fourth thanks to five consecutive hits from O'Connell, John Tobin, Maloney, Downs and Martin. On the afternoon, Buck, O'Connell, Downs and Maloney each had two hits in the win.

As for the mound, Osgood started and went the first four pitching strong before leaving for Buck who pitched in his fourth straight game, again giving the team three strong innings of relief. All-around John Martin had a fantastic game in right field and with the bat as did Tim Rose with the leather at second base and John Tobin behind the plate.

Sauve takes a second place

Nicole Sauve, a 10-year-old student at the Shawsheen School in Wilmington, recently took second place all around in the Massachusetts USAG Level 8 State Gymnastics Championship Meet held in Northboro May 9. The USAG is the governing board of gymnastics in the United States, with levels ranging from 1-6 compulsories and 7-10 optionals.

The elite level gymnasts in America must compete through the USAG. Nicole competed through local competitions to reach sectionals, which is the meet where a gymnast must score at least a 32.00 all around in order to participate in the State Meet. Nicole scored a 34.375.

By earning such a high score, she qualified to move on to Level 9. At this year's State Meet Nicole also earned silver medals on floor and beam as well as bronze on vault and bars. She has been competing for the past three years. Last year in level 6, she captured the title of USAG State Vaulting Champion, won medals on both bars and floor, and took home the sixth place trophy in the all around competition.

The previous year in Level 5, she medaled on bars and b beam; received the gold medal on floor, and won the first place all around Massachusetts State Champion title.

Because of her many successes, Nicole skipped Level 7 and competed as a Level 8 gymnast this season. She has had many opportunities to travel with the sport of gymnastics, including trips to New York, Connecticut and Washington, D.C. She traveled to Florida earlier this month to compete with gymnasts throughout the U.S. at the National USAIGC Competition. There she scored a season high 9.0 on beam and scored a 9.05 on the floor.

On Saturday, June 20, Nicole competed in the Bay State qualifier competition where she needed to place in the top 10 on an event to participate in this year's Bay State Games. Nicole scored a 9.05 on bars and an 8.90 on floor, taking third and seventh place respectively and will be competing in the Bay States at M.I.T. July 18 and 19.

Nicole is a team member of Northeast Gymnastics Center in Tewksbury where she has been taking lessons since the age of four. She currently trains up to 15 hours weekly and will be increasing her hours this summer to help prepare for next season as a level 9 gymnast.

Five Wilmington students honored for Hot Shots competition

Throughout the 1997-98 school year over 19,500 students in Massachusetts participated in the Tobacco-Free Hot Shot Competition. In celebration of World No-Tobacco Day on Saturday, May 30, 192 students from 44 communities assembled at Boston College to determine which 18 students would be the winners in the final round of the Hot Shots Competition. Five students from Wilmington were in this select group. They were Sean Murphy, grade 4, Shawsheen Elementary, Thomas Miele, grade 4, Woburn Street, Lani Cabral-Pini, grade 5, Shawsheen, Daniel Reed, grade 5, Woburn Street and Dennis Robillard, Grade 6, North Intermediate.

Golf Classic a success for Tewksbury locals

The Principal's Cup Golf Classic was played this past Saturday at the wet, but beautiful Country Club of Billerica. A field of 32 players teed off for what was, for most of them, their first major tournament, with several locals from Tewksbury doing very well.

The tournament had to be postponed last week due to El Nino. Due to the rescheduled date, the original field of 44 was cut to 32. Rumor has it that many players had prior commitments to: Baseball playoffs, World Cup, the U.S. One and the City Tournament. This was the first time in the seven year history of the tournament that a postponement was necessary.

In tournament action, Dan Fratalia led his team of Arnie Mariel, Mark Peters, and Jeff Trull to victory in the nine hole scramble. Dan's 220 yard drive on the par five fifth hole gave him the Longest Drive Trophy. It was Jeff Trull's putt on the ninth green that sealed the victory.

In one of the most amazing stories to ever come out of this tournament, a team of sixth graders finished just one stroke behind the winners. Taking second place honors was the team of: Matt Carapellucci, Ryan Dunlevy, Jon Papp, and David Peters. This group played like veterans as the gallery stood in awe of what they were witnessing.

Third place went to the team of: Chris Leonard, Joe Clark, Chris Brown and Josh Medor. In an awesome display of club control, Chris Brown put his drive just 14 feet from the pin on the par three sixth hole.

All members of the first place team, along with the winners of the Closest to the Pin and the Longest Drive, will have their names engraved on the Principals Cup. It is the mission of all golfers that enter the John W. Wynn Middle School, to have their name enshrined on the Principals Cup.

This tournament is very significant in maintaining the positive school climate at the John W. Wynn Middle School.

Although this tournament is played at the end of the school year, the interest starts building on the first day of school. The explosion of interest in junior golf is greatly enhanced by this tournament. Tewksbury Memorial High School Golf Coach, Larry Basteri is thrilled that this event takes place and he follows its monitors it very closely. All of his players are former Principals Cup participants. As Tournament Director John Donoghue points out, "it's a great time and a great experience for these kids." He further states, "these are great kids and they deserve this."

Every year this tournament grows in stature and fame. The number of participants grows every year. As it grows, so do the expenses. Since the beginning of this tournament there has been a list of valued sponsors. They include: the Parents Advisory Council of the John W. Wynn Middle School, the Disabled American Veterans, and the D.A.R.E. parents group.

This year, the Tewksbury Police Association and the Police Athletic League, were gratefully welcomed to the list of sponsors. Tournament organizers hope that this list will be expanded even further next year.

Wilmington youth softball Libby Boland's catch makes the highlight film

Girls softball 8 and 9 year old Astros vs Blue Jays

The Astros and Blue Jays hooked up in a pitchers' duel and a fine defensive game last Tuesday in Wilmington youth softball action. Libby Boland of the Blue Jays made one of the better catches of the season.

Diane Smith and Alyssa Brown also made defensive gems for the Blue Jays, while Lauren Hitchins, Samantha Rollins and Jessica Welch threw some fine leather for the Astros.

Offensive stars for the game were Nicole Bradley, Colleen Magee and Brianna Nicolo of the Astros and Susan Livermore, Julie Murphy and Meghan Murphy of the Blue Jays.

Royals vs Astros

The Astros and Royals closed out their seasons last week with a very competitive and close finale. Colleen Magee and Brianna Nicolo of the Astros both hit long home runs in this game. Lynn Olson also had a key hit for the Astros.

The Astros also had big defensive plays by Kim Ciampa, Julie Harris and Lauren Hitchins. For the Royals, Michelle St. Aubin made more than one fine play in the field as did Amy Sinclair and Jessica Harrington. Maggie Sorrentino was the hitting star for the Royals, along with Mary Cote and Brittany Mulrenan.

The improvement of the play from game one of the season until the final game was obvious as all the girls in the first division of softball made great strides!

Farm League Baseball Giants vs Expos

The Giants ended their fantastic season with another win over a very good Expos team. Brendan Sheehan had two doubles and two singles and Mike Stewart went 5-for-5 at the plate for the hot hitting Giants. Defensively for the winning team, Chris Dancoc and Billy Nickerson made several great plays to help save a few runs.

The Expos also showed off some leather with Kevin Corter and Sean Dighton making fantastic plays to hold off the Giants and make it a close game. Matt Bibeau was the Expos' hitting machine as he crushed the ball to all parts of the field.

Minor League Baseball Expos 10 Giants 9

Wilmington Little League's Minor League's last officially scheduled game of the year couldn't have been played any better, as the Sons of Italy sponsored Expos outlasted the W.S. Cavanaugh & Sons Giants 10-9 in a barn burner.

The Expos would strike first in this nail biter with Aldo Cairra singling home Brian Wilson for the first run of the game in the bottom of the first. The Expos would strike again for four more runs in the second on a three run triple by Ryan Oliveri and another RBI single by Cairra.

The game remained 5-0 Expos going into the top of the fifth when the fireworks began. led by the heavy hitting of Joe DiMare, Mike Sorrentino and Anthony DiPaulo of the Giants struck for eight runs, but the Expos would answer back with four of their own including a three-run homer by Ryan Quigley, giving the lead back to the Expos 9-8.

In the sixth inning the Giants would load the bases against the eventual winning pitcher Aldo Cairra and with one out score the tying run. Only two great defensive plays at third base by Warren Fitzpatrick kept the go-ahead run from scoring. In the bottom of the inning the Expos would get to work right away as Misha Glazomigskiy led off with a walk. One out later Tony Hogan took the second walk of the inning and Aldo Cairra got hit by a pitch to load the bases for Brian Cairra. With two strikes Cairra would lash a line drive single between the third baseman and shortstop to score Glazomigskiy with the game winning run.

For the Giants the Brown Brothers Shawn and Devin combined to pitch a great game and Ed Tucker played awesome in the field as did Joe DiMare behind the plate. Keith Irwin did a great job in his inning of relief for the Expos, shutting down the Giants with two Ks and Louis Auciello was his steady self behind the plate for the Expos.

The Expos' and Giants' managers would like to thank their sponsors, the Sons of Italy and W.S. Cavanaugh & Sons for their support and as always the parents of our kids for their support and help in making the season such a success.

Northeast Baseball team keeps streak alive at three

BY JAMIE POTE Sports Editor

The Wilmington Northeast Baseball Summer Team has opened their season with an 2-1-1 record, although they have four games to make-up. Their first game they lost to Hudson, NH, 3-1. Since then the team has not lost a game in three contests. Pat Heffernan got the team's first win on the mound, beating Dracut, 6-3. After that Matt Coyne and Mike Heffernan combined to pitch very well in their 5-2 win over Chelmsford.

Finally on Sunday the team played nine inning and tied Haverhill at three in an extra inning affair. Matt Meuse, Sean McNabb and Jim O'Donnell had two hits each in the win, while, Ryan Harrison, Mike Wilcox, Ryan Moroney, Matt Jones, Ron Olson, Buddy Phillips and Vinny DeMauro all played well.

"I think they are waiting to explode," said head coach Rob Patterson. "Sunday was a bad game - a comedy of errors. But once we start playing together a little bit more we won't be making those mental errors. Right now the pitching has been excellent, we just need a few timely hits."

Letter to the Sports Editor: Pudge asks for some help for MDA

Dear Jamie:

All athletes remember their big plays. Babe Ruth had his "called shot" home run in 1932. Willie Mays turned around the '54 World Series with an incredible over-the-shoulder catch. Roberto Clemente made his famous 300-foot throw to home in the '71 World Series.

For me, one of my big plays came on the night I met Matthew Swinton.

Matt, who is seven years old and who has spinal muscular atrophy, was in the stands two years ago with his dad. Matt gave my bat a special "good luck" touch - and wouldn't you know it, on the first pitch, I hit a home run, and my team went on to win. It was an unforgettable baseball moment for me, for Matt, and for the millions who saw this extraordinary exchange televised during the game and rebroadcast later on the Jerry Lewis MDA Labor Day Telethon.

Like each of the million Americans living with muscle-wasting diseases, Matt faces an incredible challenge. That's why I'm asking you to "go to bat" for the Muscular Dystrophy Association - the one agency offering help and hope through 230 clinics and worldwide research.

For more information call Jim Brown at MDA at 520-529-5317.

Sincerely,
Ivan "Pudge" Rodriguez

SCENTS THAT MAKE SENSE!

Prospective buyers may react strongly to the way a home smells. Smoke, strong disinfectants, insecticides, kitty litter, and french fries have all been known to dampen the enthusiasm of buyers who might otherwise respond positively to a house that would meet their needs.

Be sure that your home passes the sniff test when it is on the market. Smoke and pets are the biggest offenders. Consider a temporary smoking ban in your home while your home is on the market. If you have a cat box, be meticulous about cleaning it. If your new puppy has ruined a chair, get rid of the chair, and if necessary, consider boarding the puppy with friends until the house is sold. There are cleaning services which specialize in odor removal. They may suggest carpet steaming and other techniques to remove the offensive odor. Even if buyers smoke themselves or have pets, they will react differently to the same odors lingering in a home they are considering.

T.D. Waffle cruises past James Associates, 11-7

JUNIOR DIVISION:

T. D. WAFFLE 11,
JAMES ASSOCIATES 7

A superb T. D. Waffle defensive play had Mai-anh Vu in left field throwing to Michele Haberman, who relayed it to catcher Kayla McGlaughlin to gun down the runner at the plate. The hot gloves of Mai-anh Vu, Leanne Bradley, and Jackie Russell combined with the smoking bats of Liz Mucica (home run), Kayla McGlaughlin, Michele Haberman, and Ashley London to give pitchers Liz Mucica and Michele Haberman the win.

JAMES ASSOCIATES 26, ELLIOT'S famous HOT DOGS 7
James Associates' Ashley Ricciardi hit for the cycle with a single, double, triple, and home run. Triples were slammed in by Lauren Tucker and Krista Callan. Kristen Hachey had a double and base hits were contributed by Laura Malfy, Kara Dunlevy and Kelsey Moran. Krista Callan played an awesome game at 3rd base, tagging out 2 runners and catching a line drive, earning her the game ball honors. Jamie Chase struck out 5 in her pitching debut and Kara Dunlevy struck out 4.

DIAMOND DECKING 12, T. D. WAFFLE 3
T.D. Waffle had another excellent offensive night from Liz Mucica, who shared top hitting honors and pitching with Amy Chaisson. Kaitlyn Conley, Chaisson, and Jackie Russell were excellent in the field.

PARTS AMERICA 17, ELLIOT'S famous HOT DOGS 6
The Elliot's team had some nice offense from Amanda Watkins, Merry Hill (2 singles and a double), and hits from cousins Chrissy Lowe and Julie McNulty. Pitchers Tracie McMahon, Shelagh Sullivan, and Merry Hill were joined in their valiant defensive effort by Lauren Didonato, Carley Martell, and Amanda Parent.

KEMPO STEEL 12, ELLIOT'S HOT DOGS 8
Ashley Bucci had a solid game as catcher for Elliot's pitchers Meredith Hill and Shelagh Sullivan. Amanda Watkins shared top fielding honors with her and went 2-for-4 at the plate. Jessica Durant and Amanda Parent were the top Elliot's hitters, with Parent having a high-light reel double.

JUNIOR PLAYOFFS - QUARTERFINALS - KEMPO STEEL 8, DIAMOND DECKING 7
Diamond Decking took an early 3-0 lead in the first inning. Lisa Tenaglia walked, Kristen Smolinsky hit a home run, Lindsey Marsh hit a double, and Colleen Hanigan brought her home with a triple. Kempo Steel came back to score 6 in the third and one in the 6th, leaving Diamond Decking trailing 7-3 going into the bottom of the sixth. Diamond Decking met the challenge, scoring 4 runs to tie and send the game into extra innings. Kaileigh Michalewicz walked, Lisa Dellaruso singled but Michalewicz was thrown out trying to go to third. Renee Allard then plated Dellaruso with a double and scored on a triple from Kristen Smolinsky. Lindsey Marsh followed with a double to score K. Smolinsky and then reached home herself on very aggressive base running.

Both teams failed to score again until the tenth inning when Kempo

Steel's Danielle Delponte hit a rocket shot to center field that ended up being a home run when a relay from Michalewicz to Marsh to K. Smolinsky at the plate just missed. On the very next play the exact same relay caught the runner at the plate to hold Kempo Steel to one run, but Diamond Decking could not score in the bottom half and Kempo Steel won a thriller of a game.

Diamond Decking played excellent defense throughout the game. Fine fielding from Colleen Hanigan and Kaileigh Michalewicz complemented good pitching from Kristen Smolinsky and Lisa Tenaglia. Another great out at the plate resulted from a great throw by Lindsey Marsh and excellent tag by K. Smolinsky.

This game ended a great season for Diamond Decking. The coach had a great time and wants to thank all the girls for putting forth their best efforts. They should be very proud of a very successful season.

JAMES ASSOCIATES 11,
PARTS AMERICA 5

Key base hits from James Associates' Samantha Kelly, Jackie Tambone, and Michele Boncore made the difference in this upset victory. Kelsey Moran smacked in a double, Lauren Tucker and Laura Malfy slammed in triples, and Ashley Ricciardi smacked in a double and a home run. Pitcher Laura Malfy struck out 12 Parts America batters, Lauren Tucker caught 2 fly balls at 1st, Krista Callan tagged 2 runners out at 3rd, and Jillian Angelo put the tag on a runner at the plate. Parts America's catcher Amanda Brian made 2 nice outs at the plate. Other top Parts America defensive plays were made by pitcher Michelle Coppi and Danielle Cardarelli. Christie Costello played great at shortstop and had 2 singles and a double. Melissa Morrell made a great play at 3rd base, pitched, and had 3 singles. Pitcher Kara Drinkwater also contributed to the offense.

BOUDREAU AUT 9, ELLIOT'S HOT DOGS 3
Elliot's kept it close until the end. Julie McNulty, Chrissy Lowe, and Meredith Hill swung the bat with power, with Krista Fothergill belting a double. Lauren Didonato and Chrissy Lowe did well in the field.

BOYLE 14, T. D. WAFFLE 10
T. D. Waffle's late-inning comeback bid fell short in this hard-fought playoff game. Pitcher Liz Mucica, Jackie Russell, and Ashley London gave it their all at the plate, with Mucica, Michele Haberman, and Kaitlyn Conley making a great defensive effort.

INTERMEDIATE DIVISION:
GALLAGHER PAINTING 20,
AUTO LUXURIES 15

Auto Luxuries' Cindy Brabant belted two home runs and was joined in the offensive effort by Allison Smolinsky, Danielle Smolinsky, and Andrea Smolinsky. Defensive players Cassandra Polcaro, Denise Lazzara, and Lynne Woundy made some nice plays to assist pitcher Leanne Maniscalco.

AUTO LUXURIES 16, ST. C. DEMETRIOU D.M.D 4
The highlight of the game was Denise Lazzara's over-the-shoulder catch, running with her back to home plate. She had a great defensive game. Megan Cahill and Angelica Godoy also fielded well. Leanne Maniscalco was the winning pitcher. Offensive stars for Auto Luxuries were Sarah Donohue, Danielle Smolinsky (4-for-4), and Megan Cahill (3-for-3). The Demetriou team also had plenty of hitting, as Aleece D'Onofrio whacked a double and a single, Lyndsey Fortunato, Jenn Pupa, Liza Kasprzyk, and Ashley Smith all had 2 singles each, and Jess Mirisola, Nicole Haffey, and Kim Griffin had base hits. The Steven Demetriou team had some nice defense from Holly Bussey, Ashley Smith, Sarah Pupa, Nicole Haffey, Aleece D'Onofrio, and pitchers Jess Mirisola and Jenn Pupa.

CLINIC DIVISION:
VFW POST #8164 vs.
ATTY. JAMES CUTELIS

Alexandra Zaino did some excellent fielding in left field and Alexandra Mahoney made some nice plays at the pitcher's mound, while Samantha Fernandez hit a home run and a double and Alyssa Mooney had 3 great hits at bat for VFW Post #8164.

TEWK. POL. & FIRE ASSOC.
vs. KN. OF COLUMBUS #4336

Top offensive players for Tewks. Police & Fire were Jillian Paine and April Farmer, with Arielle DiPersio and Caitlin Goffman taking the top defensive honors.

Stephanie Brown made an outstanding comeback at bat. Michelle Mello made a great defensive play with her head; we hope she's all right. Elizabeth Rufo made another great defensive play by hiding the ball in her shirt.

TEWK. POL. & FIRE ASSOC.
vs. M.V.S.C.

Mariah Messina and Arielle

DiPersio did good defensive work, making many great plays for Tewksbury Police & Fire. Elizabeth Rufo did well on both defense and offense. April Farmer hit well and Tracy Capadanno hit a triple.

VFW POST 8164 vs.

NATIONAL FLOOD INSURANCE PROGRAM

Proposed Flood Elevation Determinations for the Town of Wilmington, Middlesex County, Massachusetts

AGENCY: Federal Emergency Management Agency
ACTION: Proposed rule.

SUMMARY: Technical information or comments are solicited on the proposed modified base (1% annual chance) flood elevations shown on your community's preliminary Revised Flood Insurance Rate Map. These base flood elevations are the basis for the floodplain management measures that the community is required to either adopt or show evidence of being already in effect in order to qualify or remain qualified for participation in the National Flood Insurance Program (NFIP). The proposed base flood elevations modify the base flood elevations shown on your community's presently effective Flood Insurance Rate Map.

DATES: The period for comment will be ninety (90) days following the second publication of this proposed rule in a newspaper of local circulation in the community.

ADDRESSES: Preliminary Revised Flood Insurance Rate Maps showing the proposed modified base flood elevations and their delineation are available for review at the Wilmington Town Hall, 121 Glen Road, Wilmington, Massachusetts.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION
The Federal Emergency Management Agency gives notice of the proposed determinations of modified base flood elevations, in accordance with Section 110 of the Flood Disaster Protection Act of 1973 (Pub. L. 93-234), 87 Stat. 980, which added Section 1363 to the National Flood Insurance Act of 1968 (Title XIII of the Housing and Urban Development Act of 1968 (Pub. L. 90-448)), 42 U.S.C. 4001-4128, and 44 CFR 67.4(a).

These elevations, together with the floodplain management measures required by Section 60.3 of the program regulations, are the minimum that are required. They should not be construed to mean the community must change any existing ordinances that are more stringent in their flood plain management requirements. The community may at any time enact stricter requirements on its own, or pursuant to policies established by other Federal, State, or regional entities. These proposed elevations will also be used to calculate the appropriate flood insurance premium rates for new buildings and their contents.

Pursuant to the provisions of 5 USC 605(b), the Administrator, to whom authority has been delegated by the Director, Federal Emergency Management Agency, hereby certifies that the proposed flood elevation determinations, if promulgated, will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities. A flood elevation determination under Section 1363 forms the basis for new local ordinances, which, if adopted by a local community, will govern future construction within the floodplain area. The elevation determinations, however, impose no restriction unless and until the local community voluntarily adopts floodplain ordinances in accord with these elevations. Even if ordinances are adopted in compliance with Federal standards, the elevations prescribe how high to build the floodplain and do not prohibit development. Thus, this action only forms the basis for future local actions. It imposes no new requirement of itself it has no economic impact.

Proposed base flood elevations along flood sources studied in detail are shown on the Preliminary Revised Flood Insurance Rate Map. Lessees and owners of real property in the Town of Wilmington, are encouraged to review these maps and related materials at the address cited above. The proposed base flood elevations are as follows:

Range of Base Flood Elevations
#Depth in feet above ground
*Elevation in Feet (NGVD)

Source of Flooding	Existing	Modified
Lubber's Brook	*93	*92
	None	*103

FLAGS BEDECK A FLOAT that is part of the Wakefield Independence Day Parade held every Fourth of July. This is the 55th year of the parade which was originally sponsored by the West Side Social Club. In 1991 the parade was taken over by the Wakefield Independence Day Committee. All the floats are eligible for awards.

When my Aunt Angelina's husband died, she became a recluse and shut herself OUT of the world. She had inscribed on his tombstone, "My Light Has Gone OUT." A year later at a social event that she just had to attend, she met a man her age who swept her off her feet. Six months later she told Fr. Dan that she planned to marry again BUT what should she do with the words on the tombstone, "My light has gone out?" Fr. Dan smiled and said, "just have these words added, 'I have just struck another MATCH!'"

Folks, God can do wonders with our broken hearts if we give Him all the pieces.

At a social party a medical doctor told a group of automobile mechanics, "I received a bill for repairs on my car that made me wonder if your charges compare with those of the medical profession?" Ace Mechanic Bob Dion spoke up saying, "with all due respects doctor for you and your colleagues we mechanics must learn about new cars every year that for the most part are, Engineers dreams and Auto Mechanic's Nightmares, while YOU and your associates are still working on the very same models since Adam and Eve."

Nightclub owners love my nephew Dennis Tully. His singing drives the patrons to DRINK. Frank Gioia, Dennis' manager asked a woman who was in tears, "does his singing move you so?" "Not really," she replied, "I'm his singing teacher and I wonder where I went wrong?"

My sister Maureen's little boy Tommy, has a habit of picking boxes of candy, cookies or jelly beans off the supermarket shelves. She devised a simple solution when she takes Tommy shopping. When they enter the store, she reaches down and pulls Tommy's trouser belt off. Folks, that keeps the little feller busy holding his pants up so he doesn't dare touch anything on the store shelves.

Someone was stealing from the church poor box. So, the sexton hid in a confessional in the dim lit church hoping to catch the petty thief. My Aunt Nora, noticing a pair of feet, went in and started rattling off her sins. The sexton tried his best to stop area towns ready to celebrate

By DOUG WOOD-BOYLE

Marching drum and bugle corps may have replaced the marching bands but the parades, fireworks, children's games, and other festivities that are all a part of celebrating the country's independence from England are still available on the Fourth of July.

With the fourth being on a Saturday, this year, many communities are having two days worth of celebrations. However, Wilmington will top the list with a week full of activities that started yesterday.

In the Middlesex East area, there will be three parades on Saturday. Wilmington will kick-off the day with a Parade including the Doll and Carriage and Bicycle Parade that will start at the Swain School in that town (for information on the activities in Wilmington call the Fourth of July Phone, 978-657-8081).

Burlington will continue the parade activities with their annual Fourth of July Parade that starts at the Burlington Car Wash on Cambridge Street at 2 p.m. and eventually ends on Winn Street.

However, the big parade is still the Wakefield Independence Day Parade. This is the 55th year for the activity that draws drum and bugle corps and other marching and entertainment units from around the country.

As always, the parade starts at 5 p.m. rain or shine.

According to Wakefield Independence Day Committee (WIDC) Co-Chairperson Steve Daly, "The only reason they won't march is if there is imminent danger such as lightning."

Daly notes that in past years the parade has been delayed while bad weather passed over but is has not been canceled.

"There is no rain date for the parade," he said.

This is the eighth parade that Daly has been associated with the WIDC. He was a part of the West Side Social Club when that group ran the parade for 47 years. The only year that Wakefield did not have a parade, since it started was in 1990 when funding was not available from the Town and the West Side could not foot the bill.

"The public safety requirements became difficult for the West Side Social Club to fund," Daly explained.

He added, "Public safety costs are the biggest factor other than the entertainment costs."

However, since the WIDC took over the parade operation they have been able to cut some of the entertainment costs without hurting the quality of the parade. Co-Chairperson Tom Doren and Booking chairperson Jake Mackay start working on the bookings for the bands two years in advance of the parade.

In fact the reason for the 5 p.m. start is to give some of the marching units time to arrive from Wakefield's biggest competitor, Bristol, Rhode Island.

The first year for the WIDC they were hit with a stroke of luck and were able to hook-up with Drum Corps East which

Couples Road Race in Lynnfield on 4th

The stage is set and plans are complete for the 31st running of the Annual Lynnfield Couples Club Road Race which will step off at 9 am on Saturday, July 4 at the Lynnfield Middle School on Main Street.

Runners are urged to register on the morning of the race between 8 am and 9 am at the school. Entry fees are $12 for adults and children. DJ Tony Cuozzo will provide music.

All proceeds from the race go toward the Lynnfield Couples Club Scholarship Fund which benefits local students. 1998 Lynnfield High Graduates Harley Carroll, Jill Gonnarn, Michelle Whelan and Melissa Marsh received this year's awards.

The overall winner in both the men's and women's divisions are running for the Stephen G. Cleary Trophy, named for the late race co-coordinator who passed away in 1993.

Prizes will also be awarded to the top male and female finishers in the following categories: 70 and over, 60-69, 50-59, 40-49, 30-39, 18-29, 16-18, 13-15, and 12 and under classes. In addition, commemorative tee shirts will be given to the first 150 registrants.

Last year, 227 runners entered the event, which is presented by The Wakefield Co-Operative Bank in association with Lynnfield Heating and Air Conditioning, Guigliano Construction, Colonial Club, Moynihan Lumber, Northrop Realtors, DiGanci and Legasey, and the Savings Bank.

Stan Black President of "Trend-Lines" told me that his cousin (a lawyer) hired a plumber to fix a leak, that took ten minutes to fix. "That will be $60.00 sir." "Why that's outra-

Local students receive NSCC scholarships

R.T. Paine Metcalf, President of the North Shore Community College Foundation Board of Directors, has announced that 97 outstanding NSCC students have received Foundation Scholarship Awards. This year, in a recent scholarship breakfast, more than $85,000 in scholarship assistance was awarded to NSCC continuing students who have excelled both academically and in service to the college and community.

NSCC's Foundation administers more than 60 named scholarship funds. Some honor individuals in the greater North Shore area or at the college, while others are funded by business supporting the philosophy of North Shore Community College. Gorton's of Gloucester, OSRAM SYLVANIA INC. of Danvers, Medtronics Interventional Vascular, Inc. and T.J. Maxx are some of the companies currently providing major corporate scholarship funds.

This year, eight new scholarships were presented. The first Warren Five Cents Savings Bank Scholarship was awarded to Peabody resident, Margaret Bornstein, a student in NSCC's Nurse Education program. The first Eastern Bank Scholarship was awarded to Evelyn Gill, Lynn.

The Elaine G. and Jacob M. Israelsohn Scholarship, established by retired NSCC professor psychology, Elaine Israelsohn and her family, was awarded to Jill Miller of Salem. The new Minnette Lall Scholarship, established as an award to a student in NSCC's Motivation Program, honors NSCC

Professor Dr. Minnette Lall. It was presented to Stacia Russell of Lynn.

The first Joseph L. Masterson Scholarship, honoring NSCC's recently retired Executive Vice President, was presented to Kathryn Gailis, Peabody. The First Dual Enrollment Scholarship was awarded to Salem resident, Amy Putnam, and the first NSCC Tech Prep Scholarship went to Andria Devoe, Salem, both recently graduated Salem High School students who will be continuing their education at NSCC.

In other special presentations, Stonehill Professor, David Mulligan was honored with the David Mulligan Scholarship which was presented to Robert Janvrin, Lynn, and Jacqueline Lawton, Andover. The list of the scholarship awards follows.

About The Towns by Phyllis Nissen

Looking good at 100

Congratulations due in Woburn

"My husband, Judge Felix Forte, who presided on the Superior Court bench, was the famous one," claimed Alma Forte-Mottola, a 14-year resident of Country Club Heights in Woburn, upon celebration of her 100th birthday on June 12," notes the Woburn edition of the "Daily Times Chronicle."

"Yet when you talk with this vibrant woman, you realize she is accomplished in her own right. At a time when women rarely attended college, she attended Northeastern University's School of Law in the evening, with three small children at home."

"Once her children were grown, Alma Forte-Mottola became a world traveler, visiting countries including Russia, Italy, Japan, Portugal, Spain, Malta, Greece, Lebanon, Syria, Egypt, Jordan and Israel. In the early sixties she traveled to what was then called 'Russia' on her own, quite a feat at that time."

"She later turned her travels into a career, working with an agent and giving travelogues complete with slides she had taken and music from the region."

"Her travelogue on Russia entitled 'I Went Alone to Russia' was a big hit on the lecture circuit. Royal Dutch Airlines invited her on its inaugural flight from New York to Amsterdam, then to Moscow. She kept them laughing as she described arriving in her Moscow hotel very late at night when she chanced to meet three men from the United States. She also became a columnist for 'The Boston Traveler' writing about her travels in the 1950s."

"Judges seem to be a part of her life, as one of her sons followed his father's footsteps and is a respected judge. As a widow, she became reacquainted with another judge, Vincent Mottola, and at the age of 80 (the groom was 84) became a bride again. They spent four years together until his death, traveling the world."

"Alma was the guest-of-honor at a party given by the residents and staff of Country Club Heights in honor of this milestone...."

UPS delivers in North Reading

"The School-to-Career Department at North Reading

High School has formed a business-education partnership with the UPS facility in Chelmsford," notes the "North Reading Transcript."

"Bill Devin, chairman of the Occupational Educational Department at NRHS, and Jay Connors, human resource director at the Chelmsford facility, have been working on this project. Employees of UPS will be available for shadowing, mentoring and for classroom presentations."

"The facility has been given the go-ahead by corporate UPS to introduce a special program, 'UPS Tuition Save Program,' which is available for juniors and seniors who are 17 or older and who anticipate attending college. Students previously or currently employed by UPS at any location are ineligible for this program."

"Along with providing an hourly wage and a bonus program, the program is designed to allocate funds for one year of college expense up to a total of $3,000."

"The participant must be active through the completion of the summer (August 28), or immediately preceding the start of the first semester. High school juniors must work a minimum of two consecutive summers at UPS to be eligible for the tuition benefits."

"The program will allocate $500 to the employee's account for each full month of employment. UPS contributions will be applied to billed expenses, less all other grants and scholarships, and not exceeding total billed expenses. A junior could potentially earn up to $3,000 toward his or her first-year college costs."

"Questions regarding this program may be directed to Devin at 978-664-7802."

About average in Burlington

"That's average, normal," said Town Clerk Jane Chew. "I'm not terribly concerned about it because that is our average."

"It was nearly an identical number to the average for the May 1997 Town Meeting -81.

"The numbers for each session in May 1997 were 86, 83, 100 (a special session devoted entirely to the Sun Microsystems proposal), 64 and 73."

"Chew said she was slightly concerned about the concluding session of 1998, 'because that night, we were lucky to get a quorum. We just had to wait a little longer (to begin; the meeting, scheduled for 7:30 p.m. commenced just before 8)'"

Weekly Fells walks for infants and toddlers

Are you home on Tuesday mornings with little ones? For an enjoyable change of routine, come for a walk in the Middlesex Fells Reservation. A weekly series of strolls and hikes through September is planned by The Friends of The Middlesex Fells Reservation. Entitled Babes in The Woods the walks are designed for infants and toddlers (especially) as well as kids of all ages including parents, grandparents and babysitters.

Alternate weeks will be either a stroll or a hike. A stroll requires only a regular carriage or stroller and will involve a leisurely walk around the Bellevue Pond or the adjacent woodland. Hikes involve slightly more difficult terrain than the "stroll", but will not be strenuous. For hikes, a jogging stroller (or good young hiker, probably age 3 and up) is needed. Also required are front/back packs, water and snacks. For either the strolls or hikes the pace will be based on the age and ability of participants.

All Strolls and Hikes are schedules the drum and bugle corps competitions for the area. As a result one of the competitions was scheduled for Colonel James M. Landrigan (USMC) Memorial Field.

"That allowed us to establish contact with the groups," Daly said.

The actual competition rotates from place to place every year but when it is up in this area, the bands like to march in Wakefield because they can easily do the three appearances in one day.

The good news is that the Competition is once again scheduled for Landrigan Field (on Hemlock Road behind Wakefield Memorial High School).

In the past the Grand Marshall for the parade has included such luminaries as Nancy Kerrigan of Stoneham and Lynnfield and Wakefield's own Supreme Allied Commander of European Forces (NATO) General John Rogers Galvin.

Daly said that recently they have moved toward having native Wakefieldians who have accomplished great deeds in World War II as the grand marshals riding the parade in the donated 1948 Playboy.

Two years ago World War II Bronze Star (among others) winner Francis Spencer was the grand marshal and last year World War II WAVE Betty Shea was the honored person.

Shea worked in the decoding room for the U.S. Navy all during the war and was one of the people responsible for breaking the Japanese Code.

This year former fighter Charles Curran will take the ride in the Playboy.

As for the groups on view, as of this writing, 18 marching units are scheduled and at least 10 floats. The units come from as near as Saugus, Wakefield and Wilmington to as far away as Quebec, Canada, Washington and Florida.

Local groups participating are: the Stuart Highlanders

Bagpipe Band, Wilmington; Clan MacPherson Bagpipe Band, Andover; Tony Barrie Band, Saugus; Boston Crusaders Drum and Bugle Corps, Boston; New Liberty Jazz Band, Billerica; the George Patti Band, Wakefield; and the Middlesex County Volunteers Fife and Drum Corps, Medford.

From out of state are: the Sartell High School Band, Sartell, MN; the Connecticut Hurricanes, Milford, CT; the Magic of Orlando Drum and Bugle Corps, Orlando, FL; the Crossmen Drum and Bugle Corps, Wilmington, DE; Spirit of Atlanta Drum and Bugle Corps, Atlanta GA; Blue Coats Drum and Bugle Corps, Canton, OH; Carolina Crown Drum and Bugle Corps, Carolina, NC; Burke Mimmers String Band, Philadelphia, PA; Fay Osseo High School Marching Band, St. Cloud, MN; and Northern Lights Drum and Bugle Corps, Washington.

Representing Canada is the Les 'etoiles Drum and Bugle Corps of Quebec.

The parade will start at the Lakeside Office Park on North Avenue and will continue on North Ave. to Church Street where it will take the left and proceed to Common Street. The parade will turn right onto Common Street and proceed to Main Street through Downtown Wakefield to the viewing stand at the Americal Civic Center.

With the clowns and music and entertainment of all types the parade promises to be colorful, lively and entertaining for kids of all ages.

Wakefield's Fourth Celebration will start on Friday night when the West Side Social Club will sponsor the band "Class of '66" on the lower common. On Saturday morning the club will sponsor all types of activities including a fishing derby, canoe race and diaper derby.

The Fourth of July would not be complete without fireworks and people in this area do not have to travel into Boston for the pyrotechnic displays.

Wilmington will be setting its skies on fire on both Friday and Saturday night at 9:30 and 9 p.m. respectively. All events can be taken in from the Town Common and parking is available at the Swain School, Cemetery, United Methodist Church, Town Hall, St. Thomas Church, the back library lot and the Congregational Church. Four bus routes will be available and visitors are warned to respect the no parking signs.

Police warn that violator's vehicles will be tagged and towed.

A day full of activities in North Reading will be capped with a bonfire at 9 p.m. on Saturday and by fireworks at 9 p.m. on Sunday, July 5.

The Saturday activities start with a five K road race at 8 a.m. in North Reading and by Breakfast on the Common in Wilmington from 7 to 10 a.m.

In Lynnfield the Lynnfield Couples Club will sponsor a road race stepping off at 9 a.m. Registration, with a $12 entry fee, takes place from 8 a.m. to 9 a.m.

The 3.8 mile course starts at the Middle School on Main Street. For further information call Bruce or Ellen Conway at (781) 334-6174.

Have a happy and safe Fourth of July.

"M.E.'s for You"

Middlesex East Sports Athletes & Activities

BY PAUL FEELY

Torrential rains have come and gone. Behind the outfield fences the waters of the Merrimack River have crested and are now receding.

Opening Night at LeLachur Park finally arrived last Monday, bringing with it a host of politicians and dignitaries, and appropriate ceremonial bombast. Journalists, from the front pages to the sports pages, strained against the limits of their craft to outdo one another, creating bucolic, days-gone-by images in word.

In the brand spanking new, spectacular little ballpark that night, amid the clamor of self congratulation and the glow of satisfaction over a job well done, another milestone reached in the surprising resurgence of this historic mill city, the 1998 Lowell Spinners finally got to play home field baseball.

Opening Night, of course, is an occasion for Firsts. In Lowell last Monday night, the Firsts went on and on. First pitches. First strikes. First hits. First Standing Ovals. And ultimately, The First Outcome; a 4-0 loss to the visiting Vermont Expos. Followed quickly by the First Home Losing Streak as the Expos, their talent laden roster carrying a half dozen first round draft choices, shut out the Spinners again on Tuesday night, sweeping the brief series with a 2-0 win.

The Philadelphia Phillies' rookie team, the Muckdogs from Batavia, NY followed the Expos into town, showing the same lack of regard for the festival spirit of the Spinners' historic stadium opening homestand. The Muckdogs pounded Lowell in the first two games of their four game series, 10-3 and 9-3, stretching the home team's First Home Losing Streak to a painful four in a row, before the Spinners bounced back on Friday night for a ninth inning, 4-3 come from behind win, their First Home Victory at LeLachur Park. The team came from behind again on Saturday Night, tying the game late and going on to another 4-3 win, this time in ten innings, splitting the four game series.

The New Jersey Cardinals came into Lowell for two games on Sunday and Monday, getting strong pitching in Sunday's series opener to shut the Spinners down on four hits and take a 6-2 win.

While the team has gotten off slowly in the 1998 New York Penn League season, (their four wins against nine losses through Sunday puts them at the bottom of the league's McNamara Division), the baseball is exciting, the enthusiasm is contagious, and the ballpark experience at LeLachur is terrific.

From the very affordable prices of everything from tickets, to parking, to foot-long barbecued hot dogs, to the non-stop between innings kid's activities and entertainment, team management has succeeded in creating an environment that every family will enjoy.

The team will be at home again for four games with the St. Catharines (Ontario) Stompers July 9, 10, 11, 12. The Stompers, affiliate of the Toronto Blue Jays, currently have the league's best record.

Following their opening night sellout the Spinner's played for enthusiastic crowds, at or near capacity, throughout the homestand. General Admission seats are $3.50, Reserved Seats and Box Seats $5.50 and $6.50 respectively.

For ticket and stadium information contact the Spinners Box Office at (978) 459-2255.

LEAVING PETS AT HOME THIS JULY 4TH

Romping with your dog in the outdoors is one of the best parts of summer. But this Fourth of July consider leaving your pet at home. Animals cannot see the bright colors of fireworks to enjoy them as people do, and they are often startled and upset by the constant noise and sudden booming sounds at a fireworks display. Crowded events such as these can unfortunately result in animals running away and getting lost.

The Animal Rescue League of Boston recommends leaving pets at home for their own safety. If possible, keep animals in a room far away from outside noise. For more information on animal safety in the summer months, please contact the Animal Rescue League of Boston at 617-426-9170.

School Notes

by Phyllis Nissen

Official in Stoneham

"It's official," notes the "Stoneham Independent."

"Joseph Connelly is sold on the town's schools and wants to be the next superintendent of schools in Stoneham...According to Connelly, his final decision was made...when he visited Stoneham's schools and spoke with administrators and teachers about the school system."

"It was a very warm welcome to say the least," he told the Independent. "I got a very positive feeling in all the schools. I was very pleased with the atmosphere."

"It was a very, very nice visit."

"The School Committee chose Connelly unanimously as their top candidate...after interviewing the four finalists for the position."

"He said that his experience in education, school construction and his family values may have been what set him apart from the other three."

"First and foremost," Connelly said, "I'm very honest. For most of my life, I've admired Stoneham and Stoneham's school system. I also sense that what I bring to Stoneham is a good match for the school system."

"I bring a wealth of experience to the town in terms of education and building projects and poem, any subject and any style to: The National Library of Poetry, Suite 1995, 1 Poetry Plaza, Owings Mills, MD 21117-6282 or go to www.poetry.com.

Congrats to all the Connells!

I look forward to getting started.

"Connelly is presently employed as the superintendent of the Topsfield, Boxford and Middleton Tri-Town School Union; a position he has held for the past 12 years. In that time, he was able to successfully usher in a new era of education in the region by adding Middleton to the mix...."

Commended in Winchester

"Superintendent Dr. Carol Eaton recently had the pleasure of announcing staff and students commendations," notes the Winchester edition of the "Daily Times Chronicle."

"Lynch Elementary School students, along with physical education teacher, Donna Gildersleeve, recently won first place in the Department of Education's Exercise Across Massachusetts contest where they handily beat, not only other school systems in the state, but their record from last year as well."

"The contest focused on tracking exercise activity points. For every 20 minutes of physical activity, the team gained one mile. This year, the contest was opened to all Lynch students, their families and the Lynch School staff, and collectively 142,000 miles were racked up."

"The clincher this year, according to Gildersleeve, along with the team's considerable improvement over last year's respectable second place performance of 97,000 miles, was the

Liposuction procedures increase by 200%

Nearly 150,000 people had lipoplasty—commonly known as liposuction—in 1997, more than tripling the number of liposuction patients in 1992, reports a study conducted by the American Society of Plastic and Reconstructive Surgeons (ASPRS) that provides statistics on procedures performed by member surgeons certified by the American Board of Plastic Surgery (ABPS).

Lipoplasty is a surgical technique that removes unwanted fat from the body while improving body contours, and is the most commonly performed cosmetic procedure in the United States.

"While lipoplasty can be an effective tool for removing unwanted areas of fat, patients should understand that it is not a substitute for exercise and a healthy diet," says ASPRS President Dennis Lynch, MD. "The procedure generally shouldn't be used as a weight-loss method, but rather to treat areas that don't respond to lifestyle changes such as diet and exercise."

The ideal candidate for lipoplasty is a healthy adult man or woman with localized areas of unwanted fat beneath firm, elastic skin. The thighs and the hips are the most popular spots for liposuction, followed, respectively by the abdomen, legs including knees and ankles, buttocks, face and neck, arms, and breasts.

Women usually seek lipoplasty to improve contour in the hips, thighs, abdomen, legs, buttocks and face-neck area, while men most frequently seek improvement in the waist and abdomen.

The ASPRS study found the following regarding lipoplasty performed in 1997:

- About half of patients were between the ages of 35 and 50 and approximately one-third were between the ages of 19 and 34.

- Eighty-six percent of patients were female and 14 percent were male.

- Nearly 95 percent of lipoplasty procedures were performed in an outpatient surgical setting.

More information on liposuction—including patient education information and an ASPRS briefing paper—can be located through ASPRS. Protect your eyes around fireworks

With the Fourth of July nearing, physicians at the Massachusetts Eye and Ear Infirmary are reminding people to make eye safety a priority if they are going to use fireworks to celebrate America's independence.

"Fireworks are capable of producing the worst type of eye injuries because they burn at such a high temperature and travel at such high rates of speed," says Kathryn Colby, M.D., Ph.D., Director of the Infirmary's Eye Emergency Services. "Almost all types of fireworks produce fast-moving, blunt objects. Not only is their direction unpredictable and inaccurate, but most fireworks travel too fast for people to move out of the way."

Each year, approximately 10,000 people in the United States suffer serious injuries from fireworks, especially around the fourth of July. Dr. Colby notes that an estimated 1,300 of those injuries are serious eye injuries and one third of these eye injury cases results in permanent blindness in one eye.

Bottle rockets are a major cause of fire works-related eye injuries and nearly all the serious eye injuries are caused by them. However, other fireworks can rupture, burn, cut, scrape and severely bruise the eye, as well as the lid, areas surrounding the eye and the face. Dr. Colby says that even sparklers are dangerous as they emit flying particles that burn at temperatures up to 1,800 degrees Fahrenheit.

Dr. Colby offers the following medical tips in case an eye injury does occur:

- Do not try to remove any protruding objects from the eye.
- Flush the eye with water to remove any particles that are present.
- Cover the eye loosely for comfort and seek immediate medical attention.

Nazareth Academy holds 49th annual graduation

The triumphant strains of "Pomp and Circumstance" resounded as forty-one seniors processed into the auditorium at Our Lady of Nazareth Academy for the forty-ninth annual graduation exercises of the Wakefield academy on Friday, June 5. Senior Class President Rachel Keniston welcomed the families and friends of her classmates, as well as Father Paul Clifford, formerly of St. Joseph's Parish. At the request of the Class of 1998, Father Clifford returned to Wakefield to celebrate the Baccalaureate liturgy, which was prepared by the class in collaboration with the campus ministers Kathleen Heffernan and Phyllis Crotty-Morrison.

Father Clifford in his message thanked the class for inviting him to share this special night. He told them to "be excited about leaving Nazareth because you are ready...God is there for you...and you can make a difference...have respect for other people and reach out to help others." He concluded by urging them "never give up on praying because prayer works."

Commencement exercises followed the Baccalaureate Mass. Principal Molly Kelley first addressed the candidates for diploma's. She said, "Center your life on God...enlarge your circle of friends but keep the old ones...and remember how much we at Nazareth love you." Mrs. Kelley also advised them to "Thank your parents every day." To the parents she expressed her thanks for their entrusting the education of their daughters to Our Lady of Nazareth Academy, and she remarked that "roots and wings are the only things we can give to our children."

Alyson Crowley was the first to speak. Alyson, who will attend Boston University on a full academic scholarship, is multi-talented. At OLN she was president of the 100+ member Concert Choir, Captain of the championship basketball team, and a member of the National Honor Society. She possesses an extraordinary soprano singing voice and she played a leading role in the school's spring musical during her junior and senior years.

Alyson was followed by Katherine Crowley, the co-valedictorian. Katherine who plans to major in biology/chemistry at Tufts University, was president of the OLN National Honor Society and was a National Merit Scholar. Intellectually gifted and multi-talented, Katie, as she prefers to be called, was editor-in-chief of the school newspaper and a member of the school's drama society. She spoke of the self-confidence she gained at Nazareth. She told her classmates, "We can achieve anything if we persevere enough...The future belongs to those who believe in the beauty of their dreams."

Senior class advisor Joan Perry of Wakefield and Guidance Counselor Julie Dempsey then presented the candidates for the diploma's, which were conferred by Principal Molly Kelley, who was assisted by Vice-Principal Mary-Anne DiMarco. Following the reception of diplomas, Ms. Vikki Withrow, Miss OLN of the Class of 1997, welcomed the graduates into the OLN Alumnae Organization.

Finally came the moment that everyone was waiting for—the announcement of Miss OLN of the class of 1998. This award is presented annually to the student, who in the opinion of both her classmates and the faculty, best demonstrates everything that the school stands for, excellence in character, scholarship, and service. Both faculty and seniors vote for Miss OLN, who this year is Christina Kouripines of Woburn. Christina Kouripines has been class vice-president for four years. She is a member of the National Honor Society, the Concert Choir, the Drama Club, and the volleyball team. She plans to attend Bentley College in the fall.

Music for the occasion was conducted by Dr. Patricia Tamagini, OLN '65 and Ms. Lora Tamagini of Wakefield. Ms. Anne Shields, OLN '65 played the organ for the processional and the recessional. Piano accompaniment was by Lora Tamagini.

The graduates and the colleges they will attend are as follows (*signifies National Honor Society)

School Notes From S-5

100 percent participation from the school.

"This was a great incentive to show kids the importance of exercise," stated Gildersleeve.

"Eaton informed the School Committee that following last year's performance, Gildersleeve had stated that she would be aiming for first place this year. 'You did exceptionally well. It's a great accomplishment,' stated Eaton.

"To receive their award, which will be displayed in the Lynch School, four representatives from each class, along with Gildersleeve, traveled to the State House and participated in a fitness walk around the Boston Common, led by Cellucci. Gildersleeve advised that the Parents Association donated the money for the field trip.

"We're very lucky here at Lynch, with a great staff and great people to work with," said Gildersleeve...."

The House of the Week Compact Splendor

ARCHED WINDOWS and a brick exterior make for a stunning facade.

Plan G-71, by HomeStyles Designers Network, offers splendid interior and exterior details in its compact, affordable design. It provides 1,398 square feet of living space. Inside, the large great room is the home's focal point. The central fireplace is an ideal place for family and friends to gather 'round, while the breakfast bar in the kitchen is a nice spot for, among other things, kids to enjoy after-school treats. The U-shaped kitchen allows the family cook plenty of room to maneuver, and meals served in the bayed dining room are aided by the presence of a handy serving counter.

The secluded covered patio is perfect for summer afternoons. The master bedroom is just steps away from the patio. The sleeping chamber has an arched window and a vaulted ceiling. Highlights of the private bath include a dual-sink vanity and a pair of walk-in closets flanking the tub.

Across the home, two secondary bedrooms have walk-in closets, and share a full bath. One bedroom features a vaulted ceiling.

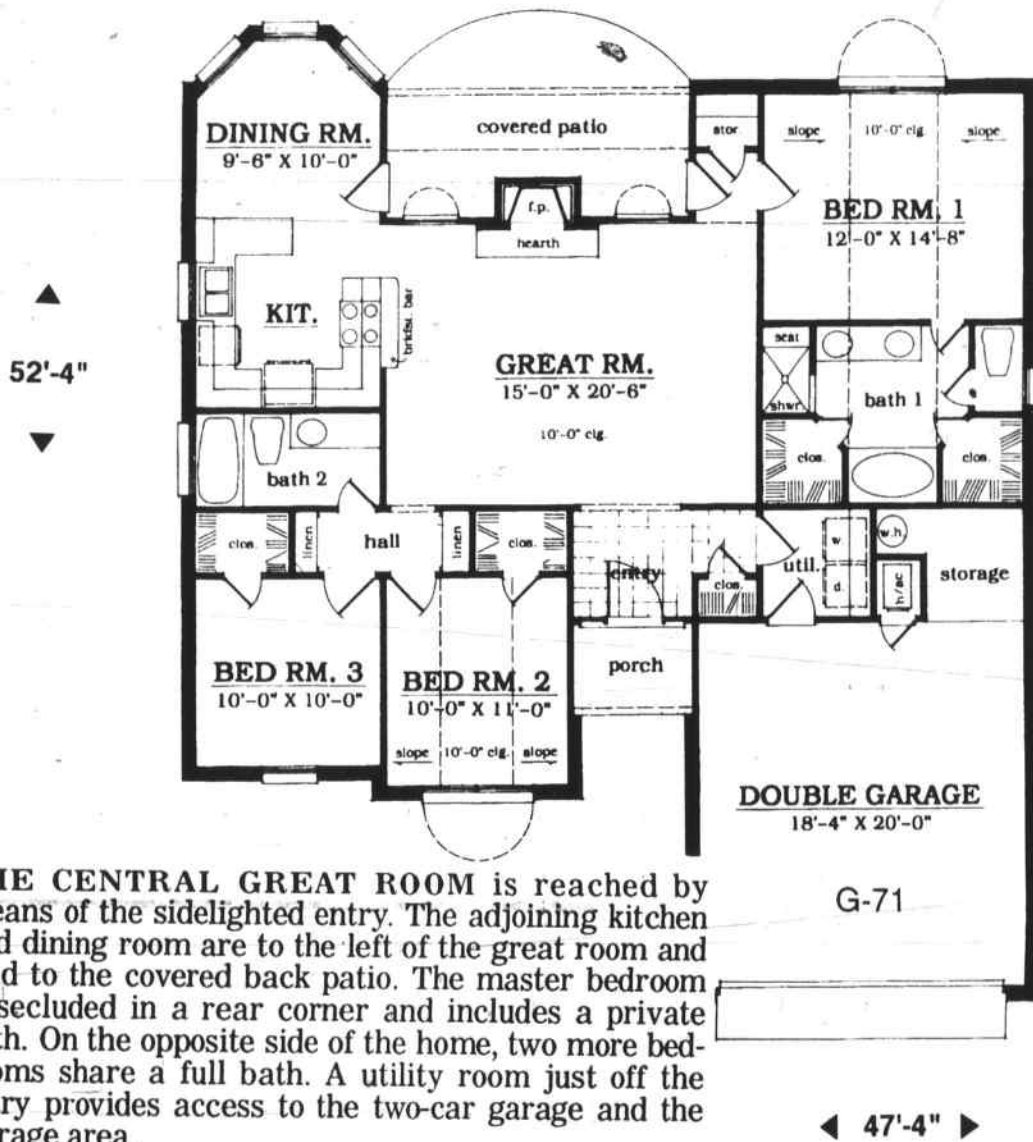

G-71 Statistics

Design G-71 has a great room, dining room, kitchen, three bedrooms, two full baths and a utility room, totaling 1,398 square feet of living space. This plan includes a slab foundation and 2x4 exterior wall framing. The two-car garage provides 465 square feet of additional space.

For a more detailed, scaled plan of this house, including guides to estimating costs and financing, send $4 to House of the Week, P.O. Box 1562, New York, N.Y. 10116-1562. Be sure to include the plan number.

THE CENTRAL GREAT ROOM is reached by means of the sidelighted entry. The adjoining kitchen and dining room are to the left of the great room and lead to the covered back patio. The master bedroom is secluded in a rear corner and includes a private bath. On the opposite side of the home, two more bedrooms share a full bath. A utility room just off the entry provides access to the two-car garage and the storage area.

How to make patterned wallpaper work for you

Do you have an oddly shaped room to decorate, one with dormer windows and sloped ceilings, for example? Or one with too many windows breaking up the walls? Think patterned wallpaper.

You might be afraid of adding pattern to an already busy room. But, in fact, the right pattern can turn a problem room into a charming one — at a fairly modest cost.

A classic example of the difficult-to-decorate room is the attic with a sloped ceiling and deep-set dormer windows. Many such rooms are converted into bedrooms, playrooms or home offices.

"It's cozy to cover the walls and ceilings with a miniprint, as if you were living inside an old-fashioned trunk," Betty Lydon, home-fashions director at York Wallcoverings in York, Pa., says.

Wallpaper From S-14

idea that would work especially well in a young child's room — is to choose a border that suggests motion, picturing cars or trains, for example. Place the border on the slope and around the tops of the windows, as if the vehicles were on a journey following a winding route around the room.

Wallpaper doesn't have to be avoided when a room has too many windows — using matching paper and fabric for window coverings can be a room unifier. When the window covering is the same as the paper, the effect is to make the windows less obvious, Lydon says.

Emphasizing a recess or a niche in a room with wallpaper can add interest to the room, says Melissa Hyatt, design director for prints and wallpaper for Waverly in New York.

If the room already is papered, choose a contrasting paper to make the niche stand out. If the room's walls are painted, almost any noticeable pattern will do the trick.

WEDNESDAY/THURSDAY, JULY 1, 2, 1998-PAGE S-15

In a bedroom where the bed has no headboard, use paper as a visual headboard. Hang a lively pattern on the portion of the wall behind the bed and frame it with narrow picture molding. Accentuate the effect with matching bed linens.

Wallpaper can be used to change the apparent height of a room. If you want the room to appear loftier, hang the paper on the lower portion of the wall below a chair rail — a molding at waist height — and paint the upper part of the wall the same color as the ceiling.

"This has the effect of making the room seem more spacious, but you still get the charm of the pattern of the wallpaper on the lower part," Lydon says.

If ceilings are too high, place a wide border a few feet below the ceiling and paint the area above the border to match the ceiling. This treatment will visually shorten the distance between floor and ceiling.

—The newest borders available feature die-cut edges on one side, such as scallops and zigzags, and can add personality to a room.
